
Index

- academic programs, reviewing, 237
academic skills, 3
accommodation, 2
accountability, as spiritual discipline, 230–31
accreditation agencies, changing assessment
practices of, 198
accrediting bodies, 7–8
adaptive competence, 48 n.
adult learning, subject of research and reflection, 23
Advancement of Theological Education
(Niebuhr, Williams, and Gustafson), 122
agenda-setting courses, 156
Aleshire, Daniel, 57
Alverno College, 45
American Academy of Religion, 17,
112–13, 119
American Association of Theological Schools, 112, 116
American higher education, malaise in, 103, 105
American Protestant history, cycles in,
113–14
American Puritanism, course design for,
188–92
American religious organizations, mid-century expansion, 120–21
American Society of Church History, 109
Anderson, Dennis, 54, 55
Andover, 107, 109, 124 n. 1
The Answer to How Is Yes (Block), 232, 239
apostolic congregations, 148
application, scholarship of, 16
apprenticeship, 19, 20
assessment, 1, 7–8
 benefiting learning, 231
 best practices, 240–45
 challenges of, 232–35
 changing practices of accreditation agencies, 198
 encouraging theological thinking, 231
 focus of, 237
 formation and, 37–38
 integral role of, at Alverno College, 45 meaning of, 229–30
 negative reactions to, 229
 outcomes, 44

- resistance to, 201–2
 tailoring to different goals, 233
 time needed for, 235 value of pursuing, 235–40
- Assessment Seminars, 178 n. 8
- Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminary (2000)
 building faculty relationships, 42, 45
 Lexington Seminar report, 232
 narrative, 52
 setting time for teaching and learning, 62
 truce on new faculty initiatives, 43
- Association of Theological Schools, 7–8, 119
 accrediting expectations, 43–44
 standards for assessment, 230
- assumptions, testing, in course development, 189
- attentiveness, call to, 32–33
- Aune, Michael, 68, 69, 74, 75, 78, 79
- Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary (1999)
 dealing with diverse student body, 51
 narrative, 51, 91, 95, 127, 166, 170, 236
 time management at, 58–59
- Baillie, John, 115
- bandwidth, pedagogy based on, 203
- Bass, Dorothy C., 59–60
- Beckford, Robert, 100
- Benedict, 62
- Bethel narrative, 171
- Bethel Theological Seminary (2001), 94
 addressing institutional change, 60
 narrative, 31, 35, 164
- Blackboard, 213 n. 9
- Block, Peter, 232, 239
- Boston Public Schools, 224
- Bowling Alone* (Putnam), 125 n. 14
- Boyer, Ernest, 16–17
- branch campuses, 54
- Briggs, Charles A., 124 n. 6
- Bright, Bill, 117
- Brookfield, Stephen, 225
- Brown, William Adams, 109, 124 n. 11
- Calvin Theological Seminary (1999), 128
 narrative, 171
 redefining curriculum, 51
- campus worship, online, 207–8
- Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, 17, 18, 213 n. 5
- Carnell, E. J., 120
- case-based discussion teaching, 176
- case studies, 191
- Case Study Institute, 182
- Center for Urban Ministerial Education, 54
- change
 focus on, 104
 resistance to, 70–74, 84
- charismatic seminaries, 121
- charismatic teacher, myth of, 202
- Chickering, Arthur, 164, 165
- Chittister, Joan, 62–63
- Christendom, 149–50
- Christian intellectual, 123
- Christianity, open decline of, 153
- Christianity and Social Order* (Temple), 93
- The Chronicle for Higher Education*, 212 n. 2
- church
 dispersed, 92–93
 formation and, 38–39
 good of, as compelling truth of Christian life, 142 history, teaching about, 195 n. 3 models of, 92
- Church Divinity School of the Pacific (2001)
 combining teaching of systematic theology and church history, 97
 narrative, 40, 52, 90, 127, 140, 161, 164
 “Quiet Days” program, 63
 setting limits through ethos subcommittee, 61–62
- Church of England, part-time ordination courses, 94
- churches
 cultural barrier between, and unchurched people, 148
 equipping members for ministry, 137
 estranged from seminaries, 55

- reduced funding of seminaries, 54
 sources of hope, 153
- Clader, Linda, 61–62
- Claremont School of Theology (2000), 128
 faculty conversations, 45–47
 housing other seminaries on campus, 54
 Lexington Seminar report, 236–37
 narrative, 34, 55
- class discussions, 203–4
- classical education, 185
- classroom education
 exercises, encouraging students'
 self-interpretation, 223–24
 nontraditional, 188, 189–91
 observation of, 193–94
 online education compared to, 199–206
 pedagogical obstacles of, 202–3 sensory experience of, 204
 site for formation, 161–63
 student support in, 206
- classroom flexibility, 64
- Classroom Observation Form* (Rosell), 193
- classroom research, 163–70
- cognitive stress, 170, 172
- Colgate Rochester Crozer Divinity School, narrative (2002), 52, 91
- collaboration
 forms of, 20–21
 in teaching, 18–19, 20
- college students, vectors of development for, 164–65
- Common Sense Realism, 108
- communities in diaspora, seminaries as, 69, 70, 83, 84, 161, 162
- community, creating, for course development, 190
- community of argument, 75
- compassionate pedagogy, 23
- conceptual competence, 47 n. 6
- congregation, role in formation of faith, 3–4
- consumer mentality, 92
- contemplation, 62–63
- contexts for teaching, 74–75
- contextual competence, 47 n. 6
- contextual framing, 172–73
- contextualization, 147–48
- contextualized experience, 218
- contextual theology, 95–96
- conversation, 64–65
 critical for institutional change or curriculum renewal, 83 education as, 9, 10
 faculty devotion to, needed, 45–46
 ground rules for, 85
 inviting participation and leading to change, 84
 methodological observation of, 67–68
 needed to create community, 101
- conversion stories, 153
- Corinthian church, 130–32
- Courage to Teach* (Palmer), 232
- course content
 coverage and application, 171–72
 framing, 172–73
- course development, 187–88
 benchmarks for, 200–201
 evaluating results, 192–95
 goal-setting for, 184–87
 requirements appropriate for, 191–92
 seven-step process, 188–92
 testing assumptions about, 182–83
- course evaluations, 193–95
- credentials, importance of, 109
- credibility crisis, 105
- critical reflection, 225
- curricular design, assessing, 244–45
- curricular revision, relation to faculty formation, 85
- curriculum
 applied vs. practical, 236
 embodying formation criteria, 35
 faculty assuming responsibility for, 237–38
 Protestantism placing Scripture at heart of, 148
 redesigning M.Div. degree, 44–45
- denominationalism, decline of, 118–20
- desecularization of the world, 151
- de Silentio, Johannes, 26
- development, phases of, 165
- diakonia*, 146, 152–53
- diakonos*, 132, 134
- didache*, 146
- differences, finding similarity in, 221–22
- discernment, 239–40

- discipleship
 process, pre-Constantinian, 153
 renewed concept of, 153
- discovery, scholarship of, 16
- discussion, faculty censorship/correction of, 205
- Discussion as a Way of Teaching* (Brookfield and Preskill), 213 n. 10
- Distance Teaching and Learning Conference, 209
- diversity, 1, 2–3
 celebrating, 221–23
 cultural and linguistic, 103
 faculty, 5
 Harvard Graduate School of Education's initiatives, 225–27 including as regular part of conversation, 226–28 practical implications of, 96–102
 among students, 2, 19, 21–22, 30, 31, 51–53
 theological, 5
 unity in midst of, 215–17
- doctoral education, desired goal of, 27
- doulos*, 132, 134
- Dowsett, Rosemary, 150
- Drucker, Peter, 152
- dualism, 164
- DuBois, W. E. B., 22
- Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary (2000), 128, 150–51 attending to formation of faculty, 41, 42, 45, 46
 curriculum changes at, 40–41
 Lexington Seminar report, 237
 losing faculty, 56
 narrative, 140, 168, 171
- ecclesial bodies, involved in assessment, 238
- ecumenical movement, 116, 117–18
- ecumenism, decline of denominationalism and, 118–20
- education
 benchmarks for, 199–201
 as conversation, 9, 10
 renewed concept of, 153
 educational assessment, 7–8 educational change, current context of, 198–99
 educational environments, variety of, 198–99
 educational goals, 189–91
 Educom (Educause), 210
 Edwards, Jonathan, 239
 Eisner, Elliot, 232
 electronic bulletin board, 204–5
 Ellingson, Stephen, 68, 73
 e-mail, method for handling, 66 n. 4
 Emmons, Nathaniel, 106
E-Moderating (Salmon), 213 n. 10 engagement, employing hermeneutics of, 223–25
 English tutorial influence, on seminars, 106–7 enlightenment scholarship, 107–8
 Ephesians, gifts to church members of ministry, 135–36, 138
 ethnicity, discovering common ground through, 99–102
 evaluation. See also assessment creating forms of, 8
 student, 243–44
 student awareness of, 175
 evangelicalism, 118, 125 n. 15
 Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), 199 evangelical schools, prospering, 7 evangelical seminaries, 121
 expectations, clarifying, for course development, 192
- Facilitating Online Learning* (Collison et al.), 213 n. 10
- faculty. See also teachers
 addressing diversity issues, methods for, 225
 assuming responsibility for curriculum, 237–38 becoming critically reflective, 225 building on experiential knowledge of adult learners, 222
 burnout among, 50–51
 busyness among, 41–42, 50–51
 concerned with shaping students' worldview, 164
 connecting with diversity of experience in classrooms, 222

- desire to see selves as independent professionals and researchers, 109 developing formation program for, 42–43, 45–47
 devotion to conversation needed, 45–46
 differing approaches among junior and senior, 85
 establishing ownership of assessment, 237–38
 expectations for student learning, 170–71
 financial strains on, 55–56
 focusing on teaching, 15
 formation of, relation to curricular revision, 85
 growing diversity in, 119
 meeting needs of less-prepared
 students, 56
 missionary movement, influence on, 115
 mixing members from different denominations, 118–19
 as models, 102
 playing additional roles, 53–54
 pressures faced by, 101
 reexamining implicit role of, 43–44 reluctance to address formation in other classroom subjects, 162
 reshaped by ecumenical movement, 118
 self-doubt among, 231
 sharing individual context, 223
 subjects of scholarly community and incorporated institution, 109–11
 trust needed among, 41
 understanding influences on, 122
 valuing, 65
 faculty life, 8–9
 Farley, Edward, 125 n. 16
 Federal Council of Churches, 117
 field supervisors, involved in assessment, 238
 Finney, Charles G., 185–86
 Fletcher, John, 184 formation, 1, 3–5
 addressing expectations for public
 leadership, 33
 assessment and, 37–38
 awarding of degree contingent on, 36
 benefits of environment geared to, 39
 the church and, 38–39
 in classroom, 161–63
 concerns leading to focus on faculty, 40–41
 congregation's role in, 3–4
 developing program for faculty, 42–43 effect of open admissions on, 162
 focus in ministerial education, 31–32
 from disciplined study of theology and scripture, 32
 implications for teaching and learning, 39–42
 at General Theological Seminary, 57
 as institutional practice, 33–39
 monastic roots of, 47 n. 2
 by osmosis, 40, 161
 process of, 39, 156–57
 redefining at seminaries, 162, 163
 reliance on personal experience running counter to, 129–30
 sharpening attentiveness, 32
 shifting demographics affecting, 92
 student response to, 36–37
 taking on ministerial identity, 33
 technology's effect on, 4
 transformative potential of, 35
 vectors of development as, 164
 as way of being a seminary, 35–36
 formative learning
 encouraging, in the classroom, 172–77
 Lexington Seminar as example of,
 177–78
 Foulke, Mary, 100
 Frazer, Elouise Renich, 56
 Fuller, Timothy, 9, 10
 further study, stimulating, 190–91

 Gadamer, Hans-Georg, 217, 218–19, 223
 Gallagher, Shaun, 217–18
 General Theological Seminary (2002)
 narrative, 57, 91–92
 reflecting changing seminary culture, 56–57
 strong formational pattern in place, 93
 Georgetown College, 65
 German university influence, on seminaries, 107–9

- Gezork, Herbert, 120–21
 global village, koinonia in, 147–48
 God's kingdom, vision of, 90
 González, Justo, 146
 Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary
 (2002), 52, 54, 118
 grading, 233, 243–44
 graduate education apprenticeship programs, 19, 20
 deformative nature of, 26–27
 formation process for future family members, 19
 students, preparing to be teachers, 15
 success indicators, 19
 grants, 55
 Grau, Marion, 61
 great awakenings, 113
 Gregory of Nyssa, 97–98
 Grieb, Anne Katherine, 64
 Groome, Thomas, 140, 146–47
 Grudin, Robert, 59, 60
 guild structure, 109
 effect on education, 16
 effect on faculty, 9
 negative effects of, 27
 Gustafson, James M., 122
- Hadot, Pierre, 10
 Harper, William Rainey, 108
 Hartford Seminary Foundation, 115
 Harvard Graduate School of Education,
 226–28
 Hauerwas, Stanley, 150
Hebrew Lexicon, 124 n. 5
 Heidegger, Martin, 218
 Henry, Carl F., 120
 hermeneutics, 217–18
 higher education, focus shifting from teaching to learning, 198
 Hodge, Charles, 110, 115
 Holbrook, Clyde, 112
 Holder, Arthur, 61
 Holmes, Arthur, 187
 holy leisure, 62
 hooks, bell, 221
 humanity, theological education emerging from, 24
 Hunter, George, III, 148
- incarnational theology, 93 Indicators of Integration (United Theological Seminary of the Twin Cities), 38
 individualism, as cultural outlook, 128
 information sources, for assessment, 243
 Institute for Higher Education Policy, 200 institutional identity, 1, 5–7
 instructional material, review of, 201
 integration
 at Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary, 74–75
 scholarship of, 16
 search for, 23–24
 integrative competence, 48 n.
 intellectual crisis, 105
 intellectual development, phases of, 164–66
Intelligence Reframed: Multiple Intelligences for the 21st Century (Gardner), 23 intensity of student support, 207 intentionality, without intrusiveness, in
 assessment, 241
 interaction, richness vs. reach, 204–5
 intercessory prayer, 150–51
International Critical Commentary, 124
 n. 5
 international culture, 143
 international students, demands of, 53–54
 interpersonal communication competence,
 47–48 n. 6
- Jacobson, Carol, 70
 Jacobson, Matthew Frye, 100
 Jesus
 ministry of, 144–47
 view of leadership, 133–34
 Johnson, Edith, 187
 Johnson, Frank, 187
 Johnson, Susan, 227
- kairos* moment, 70–71
 Kelsey, David, 125 n. 16
 Kennedy School of Missions, 115
 Kent, Charles Foster, 111
 Kerr, Nigel, 188–89
kerygma, 146, 148–49, 155
 Kierkegaard, Søren, 25–26
 Klein, Ralph W., 53

- knowledge of field, 189–90
 Kohn, Alfie, 243
koinonia, 146, 147–48, 155
 Kraybill, Nelson, 42
 Kreider, Alan, 153
- language
 play of, 219–20
 socializing influence of, 218, 219
 Layman's Missionary Movement, 117–18 leaders, helping churches think through options for understanding, 139
 leadership
 as equipping, 136–37
 Jesus' view of, 133–34
 in later Pauline letters, 134–37
 Scripture-based understanding of, 130–37
 learning
 alienation from process, 166–68
 cocurricular dimensions of, 198–99
 commitment to, 11–12
 environment, participants in, 206 goals, methods for achieving, 202–3
 joy of, 239–40
 need for increased understanding of, 15–16
 objectives, complexity of, 233–34
 outcomes, matching to methodology, 201
 phases of, 165
 physiology of, 169–70
 requirements for, 16
 research on, 163–70
 styles, 166–69
 lecture format, 191
 legend, moving beyond, 190
leitourgia, 146, 151–52
 Lexington Seminar, 49 benefits of focusing on pedagogy, 28 effect on Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary, 83–85
 example of formative learning environment, 177–78
 participating schools, 265–66
 process of, x–xii
 structure of, ix
 Lexington Theological Seminary (2002),
 narrative, 91, 92, 127–28
- Liebert, Elizabeth, 234
 Light, Richard, 178 n. 8
 Lind, Robin, 66 n. 4
 literature, familiarity with, 190
 Loetscher, Lefferts, 187
 Loyola, Saint Ignatius, 239
 Lull, Tim, 68, 69–70, 73–74, 77, 78
 Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago
 (1999)
 dealing with diverse student body, 51, 52
 narrative, 53
 Lutheran Seminary Program in the Southwest, 58
 Luther Seminary (2001)
 addressing institutional change, 60
 non-classroom-based components, 199
 statements of learning outcomes, 200–201
- Machen, J. Gresham, 110
 Mackay, John A., 118
 Mackenzie, W. Douglas, 115–16
 mainline schools, destabilization in, 7
 Mapp, Karen, 227
 Marsden, George, 184–85
 Marty, Martin E., 125 n. 14
martyria, 146, 149–52
 Master of Divinity degree
 complexity of learning objectives, 233–34
 demographics of students, 51
 redesigning, 44–45
 Mathews, Shailer, 124–25 n. 12
 May, Melanie, 62
 Mazur, Eric, 175–76
 McCormick Theological Seminary (2000)
 addressing institutional change, 60
 project report to Lexington Seminar, 220
 Mead, Hiram, 186
 measurable, overemphasis on, 232–33
 mega-churches, 154
metanoia, 10
 methodology
 appropriate, for course development, 191
 matching to learning outcomes, 201
 Miller, Donald E., 154

- Miller, Sue, 11
- mindfulness, reclaiming, 64
- mind maps, 167, 168
- ministerial leadership, agreeing on adequate preparation for, 35
- ministry
- expected roles of, 144
 - of Jesus, 144–47
 - lack of unifying principle, 144
 - modus operandi* of, 146–47
 - ongoing discussion about nature and form of, 144
 - Paul's view of suffering in relation to, 132
 - in postmodern context, 149
 - preaching and teaching focus, 148
 - preparation for, students' understanding of, 2–3
 - seminaries and, 137–40
 - styles incompatible with gospel, 131
 - understanding nature of, 130
- ministry of the Word, centrality of, 155
- minute paper assignments, 173–75, 177
- missionary movement, 115–17
- missions, revived interest in, prompted by ecumenical movement, 117–18
- models, for course development, 188–89
- Moody, Dwight L., 117
- Morgan, Donn, 61
- Morse, Jedidiah, 105
- Mosteller, Frederick, 173–75, 177
- movements, 114
- ecumenical, 116, 117–18
 - missionary, 115–17
 - social, 115
- Mullin, Bruce, 56
- multiplicity, 164–65
- Murphy, Jerome, 226
- mystery religions, 152
- mythology, moving beyond, 190
- narrative, attention paid to, as form of communication, 149
- National Association of Bible Instructors, 112
- National Association of Bible Teachers, 111
- neo-confessionalism (neo-orthodoxy), 124 n. 5
- neuroscience, 169–70, 171–72
- Newbiggin, Lesslie, 154–55
- Newman, Judith H., 56–57
- New Paradigm Churches, 154
- New Reformation, possibility of, 154
- new religiosity, leitourgia in context of, 151–52
- The New Update on Adult Learning Theory* (Merriam), 23
- Nichols, James Hastings, 11
- Niebuhr, H. Richard, 122–23, 144
- Niebuhr, Reinhold, 109, 120
- Noble, David, 212 n. 2
- non-classroom-based components, 199
- Norris, Kathleen, 63
- Nouwen, Henri, 60
- Nysse, Richard W., 197
- Oakeshott, Michael, 9, 10, 64
- Oberlin College, 185
- observation, as learning tool, 19
- On the Divinity of the Son and the Holy Spirit* (Gregory of Nyssa), 97–98
- online education, 178 n. 3
- compared to classroom experience, 199–206
 - defining “quality” in, 200
 - environment for, 206–7
 - implications for teaching and learning, 211–12
 - overcoming pedagogical obstacles, 202–3
 - rethinking student needs for, 209–11
 - richness vs. reach, 204–5
 - role in transitions, 199
 - support for students, 206–11
 - turning the corner on, 197–98
- on-site courses, 188, 189–91
- ontology, hermeneutics, of, 218
- open admissions, effect on formation, 162
- ordination, nontraditional routes to, 8
- osmosis, formation by, 40, 161
- outcomes
- assessment, 44
 - increased focus on, 198–99
- Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary (2001), 32
- action plan for, 70
 - curricular plan, 81–82

- default interactional pattern, 78–79 dialogue with constituents, 39
 discussion of courses and curriculum, 76–80, 81–82
 discussion of pedagogical practices, 75
 ethnographic study of, 67–86
 faculty involvement, proposal for, 71–72
 faculty reflection on, 74, 75
 faculty reformation, 82–85
 faculty's decision to work together, 80–81
 identifying goals of seminary
 curriculum, 75–76
 at Lexington Seminar conference, 69–70
 mission emphases, 82
 narrative, 155, 161, 176, 234–35
 resistance to change at, 70–74
 scarcity at, 69
- Palmer, Parker, 20, 221, 232
 Palmer, Richard, 217
 participatory pedagogy, 155
 part-time courses, 94–95
 Pastoral Epistles, 134–35
 pastors, avoiding notion of spiritual superiority, 137–38
 Paul, 239
 leadership for, 130–32, 137
 leadership in later letters of, 134–37
 pedagogical research, limitations of, 165–66
 peer feedback, 174, 175
 peer learning, 176–77
 peers, writing to, 205
 Pence, Gary, 79
 Perry, William, 164–65
 personal experience
 insufficient for New Testament's vision of ministry, 137–38
 placing in historical context, 140–41
 problem of, 128–30
- Phillips Academy, 107
 philosophical schools, 139
 Pludemann, Jim, 157
 postcapitalist society, diakonia in, 152–53
 post-Christendom society, 143, 149–52
 postdenominational Christianity, 154
 postdenominational era, emergence of, 143
- postmodernity
 influence on cultural trends, 143
 kerygma in context of, 148–49
 postmodern relativism, 139
 pragmatism, idolized, 232
 prejudice, rehabilitation of, 217–20, 223
 preparation for ministry, issues affecting students, 31
 Presbyterian Princeton Seminary, 124 n. 1 professional development, competencies for, 39
 program design, assessing, 244–45
 program integration, 36
 Program of Priestly Formation, 233, 237
propheta, 146
The Purpose of the Church and Its Ministry: Reflections on the Aims of Theological Education (Niebuhr, Williams, and Gustafson), 122–23
 Putnam, Robert D., 125 n. 14
- questions, asked in assessment, 241–42
- race, 100
 racism, 95
 Rauschenbusch, Walter, 117
 reach, in learning experience, 204–5
The Rebirth of Ministry (Smart), 144, 145–46
 reflective practice, 33
 reformation, ethnography of faculty process
 of, 67
 Reformed tradition, for viewing Jesus, 145
 Regent College (1999)
 grading difficulties, 51
 Lexington Seminar report, 233
Reinventing American Protestantism: Christianity in the New Millennium (Miller), 154
 relationship, teacher's work based on, 23
 relativism, 128–29, 164, 165
 relevance, search for, 23–24
 religion
 end of, announced, 151
 most compelling of all disciplines, 24
 new attitude toward, 151–52
 power of, 25
 teaching of, in colleges and universities, 112

- understanding in context of religious experience, 25–26
 religiosity, New Testament teaching about, 156 Religious Affections (Edwards), 239 religious awakenings, context for seminaries, 105
 religious experience, 25–26
 religious studies
 - improper major for students preparing for seminary, 112
 - increasing visibility of college and university departments, 113
 - influence of discipline on graduate theological programs, 5*Resident Aliens* (Hauerwas and Willimon), 150
 revision, importance of, in course development, 192–93
 revivals, 114, 120, 121
 rhetorical skills, 3
 Rice, Eugene, 16–17
 richness, in learning experience, 204–5
 Ricoeur, Paul, 22
 Rockefeller Brothers' Fund, 120
 Rogers, Tom, 68, 71
 Rudenstine, Neil, 226
 "Rules of Discernment" (Loyola), 239–40
Rule of St. Benedict, 32
 Russell, Bertrand, 183

 Schleiermacher, Friedrich, 116, 124 n. 11, 217–18
 Schmemmann, Alexander, 32 scholarly community, conflict with incorporated institution, 109–11 scholarship, activity defining, 16
 "scholarship of teaching," 213 n. 5
School District v. Schempp, 112
 Scotland, influence on seminaries, 108
 Sealtanic Fund, 119
 Sears, Bernas, 115
 Second Thessalonians, theology of ministry in, 135, 138
 Second Vatican Council, 118
 secular doctoral institutions, ethos of, 15
 seminaries
 - administrative personnel involved in assessment, 238
 - assessing practices of teaching and learning, 123
 - assessment objectives, 236–37
 - balancing heritage and ecumenical realities, 2
 - battles in, intensity of, 110
 - changing nature of student bodies, 90
 - churches estranged from, 55
 - communities in diaspora, 69, 70, 83, 84, 161, 162
 - consensus required in, 103–4
 - conspiracy of mediocrity in, 18
 - constructive steps for improving, 27–28
 - cost-benefit analysis, 8
 - curricular prerequisites, 3
 - declining prestige of, in Western world, 111–13
 - dispersed, 92–93
 - diversity in student populations, 95
 - duplicating ethos of secular doctoral programs, 27
 - early structure of, 109
 - education at, valued when teaching and pastoral ministry are linked, 139
 - effect of geography on economics of, 7
 - emerging from revivals/movements, 114
 - English tutorial influence on, 106–7
 - expansion of programs in, 184
 - expense of maintaining, 104
 - faculty concerned with shaping students' worldview, 164
 - faculty work, change in nature of, 50–51
 - financial concerns, 54–58
 - formation isolated at, 162
 - formation redefined, 162, 163
 - German university influence on, 107–9
 - healthy, 102
 - housing other seminaries on campus, 54
 - institutional energies of, 121
 - institutional model of, 6–7
 - integrating new programs, difficulties of, 6
 - leadership dilemma in, 104
 - living in shadow of university and religious awakenings, 105

- ministry and, 137–40
 money, in culture of, 50
 mythical golden age of, 89
 new ways of seeing, 59–60
 not meeting students' expectations, 127–28
 numbers of faculty at, relative to revival figures, 121
 opening to part-time students, 90–91
 plan for adapting to changing world, 221–28
 prerequisites for, 112
 purpose of, examining, 84–85
 quality of teaching and learning in, 17–18
 reclaiming as learning communities, 9–10
 reflecting context of church and society, 1
 relation to the church, 38 removed from congregations, 10
 responding to time and money constraints, 58–62
 responsible for spiritual formation, 4 revivals/movements, influence on, 114–15
 role in ecclesiastical controversy, 116 role of, in current crisis, 104–5 Scottish influence on, 108
 setting limits, 60–62
 sharing churches' problems, 104
 shifting style and ethos of life in, 4–5 strain of operating, 50
 struggling with institutional identity, 5–6
 threefold mission, attempts to fill, 234
 time, in culture of, 50–58
 time at, 64
 U.K. model, 94
 U.S. model, 94
 uncontrollable variables, 234
 uniqueness of, 234–35
 vocational crisis in, 104
 willingness to respond and to be transformed, 2
 seminars, 186, 191
 seminar-style discussion classes, 176
 seminary students. See students
 Senge, Peter, 213 n. 7, 231
 September 11, 2001, 74
 service learning, 213 n. 6
 Shelton, Robert, 59
 Shulman, Lee, 17
 skills practice, 175–76
 small-group discussions, 205
 Smart, James, 144, 145–46
 Smith, Timothy, 187
 social activism, 152–53
 social gospel, 117
 social issues, addressing, as means to build faculty community, 72
 society, transitioning from homogeneous to multiethnic, 143
 Society of Biblical Literature, 17, 109
 Sophists, 10–11
Souls of Black Folks (DeBois), 22
 Southern Baptists, 116, 124 n. 1
 spiritual growth, academic endeavors intertwined with, 139–40
 spiritual individuation, 164
 spirituality, theologically based, 146
 Stark, Joan, 39
 Stortz, Marty (Martha Ellen), 68, 69, 73, 75, 76, 82
 Strohl, Jane, 73, 76–77, 78
 Strong, Augustus Hopkins, 185
 Strudwick, Vincent, 92
 Stuart, Moses, 107
 student-faculty communication, on teaching and learning, 178–79 n. 9
 students
 active participation in assessment, 240–41
 appreciating background, rather than lamenting, 34
 assessing competencies and dispositions
 of, 238–39
 bringing outside work to seminary, 52
 clash between resident and nonresident, 91–92
 common foundation among,
 historically, 29–30
 commuting, 56, 90–91
 counseling, 35
 dealing with outside commitments, 90–91
 diversity among, 2, 19, 21–22, 30, 31, 51–53

- evaluating, on ability to reflect on own practice, 156
- expectations for online education, 208–9
- fundamentalist backgrounds providing insights to spiritual learning, 155–56
- identifying learning styles and goals, 21
- learning to be agents of transformation, 38–39
- limited knowledge and experience upon entering seminary, 3
- need to have experience heard and affirmed, 127, 128
- new constituencies of, 2
- not meeting faculty expectations, 127–28
- not perceiving link between seminary and ministry, 92
- passive, 209
- perceived gulf between academics and pastoral work, 128
- prepared differently and diversely, 34
- present generation, 30
- pushing them to adopt a theological method, 141
- relating theology to their own and others' contexts, 95–96
- retelling biblical stories in own words, 98
- rethinking needs of, 209–11
- self-evaluation, 237
- valuing experiences of, 138, 140
- student services, online access to, 210–11
- student support, 206–11
- Student Volunteer Movement, 117
- Sunday, Billy, 117
- symbol creation, 24
- systematic theology, combining with church history, 97
- Taylor, Charles, 112
- teachers. See also faculty
- charismatic, myth of, 202
 - engaging challenging children and adolescents, 224–25
 - hiring of, 17
 - knowledge about students, 21
 - mannerisms of, 193–94
 - place in the church, 26
 - presenting alien material, 97
 - role in the church, 26
 - raison d'être* of, 25
 - study within commitment to tradition, 25
- teaching
- based on relationship, 23
 - central elements of pastoral ministry, 138
 - conducted in secrecy, 18
 - contexts for, 74–75
 - few objective standards for, 18–19
 - joy of, 239–40
 - in light of challenges facing theological education, 74
 - link to research, 25
 - need for collaboration, 18–19, 20
 - pathologies related to, 18
 - scholarship of, 16–17
 - shift from disciplinary content to practices of, 16
 - social impact of, 17
 - techniques for encouraging formative learning in the classroom, 172–77
- technical competence, 47 n. 6
- technology. See also online education
- effect on education, 4
 - values guiding use of, 4
- Temple, William, 93
- theological disciplines, skeletons of former selves, 24
- theological diversity, 5
- theological education
- alternative models for, 8
 - busyness counterproductive to, 46
 - changing character of, 11
 - components of, 15
 - de-skilling older students, 98–99
 - distinct from ministry, 10
 - finding value in, 140
 - good assessment practices important for, 230–31
 - great American battles in, 110–11
 - incarnational model of, 93
 - influence on, of religious studies programs, 5
 - as laboratory for new type of ministry, 155
 - as ministry, 157

- Protestantism placing Scripture at heart of curriculum, 148
sequence of, 34
thinking theologically about, 236
two-tiered system, 99
understanding from theological standpoint, 122–23
- theological inquiry, 6
- theological schools. See seminaries
- theological specialization, 108
- theological studies, lifeless presentation of, 26
- theological training, two-tiered approach to,
94
- theology
most compelling of all disciplines, 24
students' frustration with, 91
- thought, setting aside time for, 183–84
- threaded discussions, 204–5
- Tillich, Paul, 120
- time, reclaiming, 62–65
- time management, 58–59
- transformation, pain and suffering of, 22
- transparency, in teaching and learning strategies, 177
- Trinity, bringing alive discussions of, 97–98
- tutorial system, 106
- two-thirds church, presence in United States, 147
- understanding, constant revision of, 220
- Union Theological Seminary, 116, 124 n. 1
- United States
Christian social order in, 149–50
social revolution in, 152
- United Theological Seminary of the Twin Cities (2001)
diverse students demonstrating
integration, 36
expectations regarding formation, 37
narrative, 31, 95, 127, 142, 165, 169, 221–22
- university, context for seminaries, 105, 106–13
- University of Berlin, 107–8
- university divinity school, 116–17
- van Dusen, Henry Pitt, 125 n. 14
- Vargas, Alicia, 68, 70
- Virginia Theological Seminary (1999)
addressing needs of international students, 51
narrative, 54
- Warford, Malcolm, 67
- Washington Theological Union, curricular plan of, 81
- Webb, Stephen, 25
- Weil, Simone, 245
- Welch, Sharon, 97
- Werksglocken*, 66 n. 3
- Wesley, John, 239–40
- Wesleyan Quadrilateral, four sources of revelation, 128
- Western churches, establishing missionary stance in own culture, 154–55
- whiteness, coming to terms with, 99–100
- Williams, Daniel Day, 122
- Williams, Patricia, 100, 101
- Williams, Raymond, 70
- Willimon, William H., 150
- Wisdom, John, 181
- Wood, Leonard, 115
- Wright, Walter C., 64
- Yale College, 185
- Yale Divinity School, 107, 116
- Yates, Wilson, 66 n. 4
- zero programming, 123